Supplemental Figure 2

Supplemental Figure 2. The PCA of temporal transcriptional profiles in individual tissues. In each PCA map, a sphere represents projection of an age sample in the 3D space formed by the top three principle components. Two data points at each age point are connected by a straight line. Percentages of variations captured by the top two principles are labeled on the corresponding axes.