

Fig. S1: Distribution of SD identities.

The black line corresponds to all detected SDs. The three color lines correspond respectively to values of sequences belonging to groups with two; from three to five; and more than five sequences.