

Figure S6. The X and Y axis show RNAP-II and RNAP-III scores (log2 of value+1). The numbers along the axis indicate the number of points counted in vertical respectively horizontal slices of 1 unit starting at 0. The colors of the dots indicate amounts of H3K4me3 tags at the gene, as indicate in the lower right corner.