

Figure S13. Removal of hidden covariates from expression data.

The number eQTLs detected at FDR 5% as a function of the number of hidden covariates removed from the gene expression data. A matched number of males and females ( $n = 274$ ) was used for eQTL detection.

When 25 hidden covariates are removed, eQTL detection is optimized.