Figure 10: P-value for difference in predicted lapatinib response between ERBB2+ and ERBB2- TCGA samples. These P-values are derived across the entire dataset when (a) calculating the association with no correction or (b) calculating the association when controlling for tissue-of-origin.