Supplemental Figure 9.
A dot plot visualizing marker overlap between the clusters identified in the 5 studies. Dot diameter represents the fraction of markers that overlap, as shown in scale. Color represents the statistical significance of the overlap (-log10 of the p-value) with red indicating statistically significant overlap.