

Supplementary Figure S16. Convergence between vocal learners compared to baseline expectations given by the rate of convergence with a similarly divergent non-learner. Dots indicate the rate of convergence as a percentage of convergent ARs per AR. Fisher's exact test p-values are given to the right to indicate statistical support for the two convergence tests being different.