

Supplemental Figure S5. Poincaré embedding results after normalizing the contact frequencies based on sequence length (upper panel) and without normalization (lower panel) for Chromosome 11. The y coordinate of each point was the negative of the median Poincaré radii for each sample, which measures the hierarchy depth of the chromatin contacting network.