

Supplementary Fig. S3. The cross-validated confusion matrices of PEFT-SP using LoRA with ESM2-3B across all organism groups. The non-SP group consists of sequences from both soluble and transmembrane proteins. Percentages are calculated row-wise to represent the proportion of correctly identified ground truth labels. The darker color represents a larger number of samples.