

Supplemental Fig. S2. Quantification of uracil formation detected via alkaline gel electrophoresis of CPD deamination experiment performed in cells. The number of uracils per kb represent averages of three independent experiments after subtracting background signal from the UDG-alone digest. Mean  $\pm$  SEM is depicted.